

THE FIGHT IS TO CONTINUE.

War Against Rottenness and Corruption.

So Asserts the President in an Address.

Chief Executive Talks to Educational Leaders.

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—P.M.
WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.—That there will be no let-up in President Roosevelt's policy of warring "against rottenness and corruption" was emphatically declared by the President today in an address to the delegates to the National Educational Association, during their reception at the White House.

Continuing, the President gave his views on educational methods at considerable length and with thought and vigor of expression.

At today's business session of the association, Oklahoma City was selected as the next meeting place, and officers were elected as follows:

President—W. H. Elson of Cleveland.
Secretary—A. C. Nelson of Salt Lake City, Utah.

President Roosevelt, in his address to the convention, spoke, in part, as follows: "Of all the bodies of citizens that I have received here at the White House, there is none that occupies a more important relation than yours. I am tempted to say none has come that has occupied as important a relation to the nation."

"It is idle for any man to talk of despairing of the future of this country or feeling unduly alarmed about it, if he will come in contact with you here and with the forces that you represent. Fundamentally this country is sound; morally no less than physically. Fundamentally in its family life and in the outside activities of its individuals, the country is better, and not worse, than it formerly was. This does not mean that we are to be content if we fail to war against rottenness and corruption, if we fail to contend effectively with the forces of evil; and they waste their time and energy to withhold my hand from dealing therewith. But it is worth while to smile the wrong for the very reason that we are confident that the right will ultimately prevail. You who are training the next generation are training this country as it is to be a decade or two hence, and while your work in training the intellect is great, it is not as great as your work in training character. More than anything else, I want to see the public school turn out a boy and girl who, when man and woman, will add to the sum of good citizenship of the nation."

"I trust that more and more of our people will see to it that the schools train more toward and away from the farm and workshop. That people shall understand that the great center of the good blacksmith, the good mechanic, the good farmer really do fill the most important positions in our land, and that the evil doing is not in them and the nation to have their sons and daughters forsake the work which, if well and efficiently performed, means more than any other work for our people as a whole."

"Physical prowess, physical address, are necessary, they stand on a level with intellect and only below character. Let us show that we regard the position of the man who works with hands as being ordinarily as important and dignified, and as worthy of consideration, as that of the business man or professional man. We need to have a certain readjustment of values in this country which will naturally come through the efforts of just you men and women here, and the men and women like you throughout this land."

"I would not have you preach an impossible ideal. Teach them that they should earn their own livelihood. Teach the boy that he is to be the home-maker; the girl that she must ultimately be the homemaker; that the work of the father is to be the breadwinner and that the mother is to be the homemaker; that their work is by far the most important in the land."

VANDERBILTS TRANSFER BONDS

PLACE OVER $1,000,000 WORTH IN COUNTESS'S NAME.

Securities Will Be Placed in a Bank at Budapest—So Far, Nothing Has Been Given to the Count. Countess's Real Estate Will Not Be Sold.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]
NEW YORK, Feb. 26.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Between $1,000,000 and $2,000,000 of New York City bonds were transferred on the records of the Comptroller's office today from the Vanderbilt family to the Countess Szechenyi, who was Miss Gladys Vanderbilt.

At the Comptroller's office information was refused as to the name of the individual from whom the securities were transferred, the transfer being made at the request of a local attorney. The bonds will be transferred to a bank in Budapest, where the interest will be made payable. None of the city bonds were transferred to the name of the Countess.

It was declared today that the Countess's real estate will not be sold, but is to be retained and the income forwarded to her.

AERONAUTS ARE SEARCHED BY OFFICERS.

M. Faure, Noted French aeronaut, who, with several companions, alighted across line in Germany and were searched by officers.

PARIS, Feb. 26.—M. Jacques Faure, the famous French aeronaut, made his first ascension, having as his companions two Englishmen, a French friend, and Dirigible, his dog, who also is a veteran balloonist.

In ten hours the balloon covered 500 kilometers, and landed at Ottenheim, in Germany. There, while breakfasting, the police intervened and searched the aeronauts from head to foot. The officers said that three months previously they had received instructions to search all aeronauts.

The Englishmen had on stiff shirts, which were especially scrutinized by the police, who thought they had hidden. Even a tin of sardines and some canned fruit were opened, the police apparently expecting to find a detective camera.

The officers behaved most courteously, and expressed regret at the inconvenience to which they placed the aeronauts in carrying out their orders.

Chairman Hale read a letter received from Col. S. L. McClure, suggesting that Lieutenant-Commander Vogelsang, whom he designated as an expert in regard to torpedoes, and Lieutenant-Commander Hill, an expert in the distribution of armor plate, be called as witnesses. Col. McClure stated that neither of these officers had in any manner contributed to the Rauterdahl article.

Mr. Hale said he deemed the request proper, and that he had given assurance that the officers would be called. It has been pointed out that all officers of the navy whose names have been connected with the recent criticisms of construction shall be called and that Col. McClure also shall be given an opportunity to appear and make a statement.

In concluding his testimony, Rear-Admiral Capps showed that the provision of the naval appropriation act of 1904, requiring the department to receive plans and specifications for battleships from private naval architects, had been complied with in the cases of the two big ships of the Delaware class.

The largest ship authorized by the United States Navy designs were constructed outside of those being constructed under department supervision.

OUR SHIPS EQUAL ANY.
The admiral asserted that the American ships are the equal of ships of any navy of the world. The most serious charges made, he said, were of insufficient free board, meaning height from water line to decks, insufficient gun height and the crowding of the big main line armor belts, and all these he explained have been the subject of slowest study and experiment for many years by naval designers of every country.

Admiral Capps characterized as "explosive" the theory that if a shell penetrated the armor plate of the Delaware, it would be deflected upward by the armor of the protected deck.

The admiral said the fact that in the Dreadnaught class in Great Britain and the Delaware in the United States, the forward free board had been made on deck higher than the previous class design means that the latter was too low. "They are just right for their type," he said. "The Delaware is the highest of the big gun ships she is designed on finer lines, much longer and for greater speed, which, of course, casts the spray higher. No increase has been made in the free board except at the bow."

He stated that during the five hours' firing in the fight of the sea of Japan, the rapidity of fire from the big guns of the Japanese vessels was only one-fourth of that maintained by the American ships.

Representative of Telephone Company Leaves Heavy Sack With Mayor of Dallas, Tex.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]
DALLAS (Tex.) Feb. 26.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] F. J. Norris, representing the E. L. Swain syndicate of Los Angeles, which was recently granted a franchise for an independent telephone system in Dallas, today appeared at the City Hall and planked down on the desk of Mayor H. C. Rankin a sack of gold weighing thirty-six pounds.

It counted out an even $10,000, which the Los Angeles men put up as a forfeit in case they failed to fulfill the terms of the franchise if the same should be confirmed by the voters at the polls.

The Southwestern Telephone Company is fighting the new enterprise, and a hot campaign is on.

FLAT FIRE ON HILL ROUTS MANY TENANTS.

FIRE in the two-story, four-flat frame building at No. 314 South Grand avenue shortly after 5 o'clock this morning sent the thirty or more occupants into the street in their night clothing, damaged the building and contents to the extent of about $6000, and created general alarm in the neighborhood, which is one of large flat and apartment buildings.

The fire started in the kitchen of the flat of Mrs. Susan Holmes on the first floor, spreading through that apartment and to the one above, occupied by Mrs. D. M. Jones and family, thence through the roof. For a short time the flames shot from the roof, making a spectacular blaze. The quick arrival of steam and chemical engines soon checked the fire, however, although for more than an hour there was a hard battle with the smoldering woodwork inside the building.

In addition to the families in the building there were numerous lodgers, including a number of tourists. All were driven out by the stifling smoke that filled the structure from the start, but as the flames were checked they ventured back, donned more clothing and devoted themselves to saving furniture, trunks and other belongings.

Several small children were driven out; half-asleep, and one of them, a little girl of four years, clutched tightly a doll she evidently had taken to bed with her, shivering the while in her thin little "nightie".

The building, which is owned by F. J. McCormick, was damaged most on the north side, in which the fire started.

SENATE COMMITTEE LEARNING HOW IT IS DONE.

Inquiry Into Their Construction Continues—Rear-Admiral Capps Concludes Statement in Which He Says American Ships Are the Equal of Any in the World.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—P.M.]
WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.—Just how far the Senate Committee on Naval Affairs will go into the criticisms of battleship construction will be determined at an executive session tomorrow.

Noting the hearing today, Rear-Admiral Washington Lee Capps, chief constructor of the navy, concluded his statement in reply to and in refutation of the Rauterdahl article, and it was agreed to call tomorrow Rear-Admiral Mason, chief of the Bureau of Ordnance, to meet the criticisms made by Mr. Rauterdahl of turret construction and ammunition hoists.

Chairman Hale read a letter received from Col. S. L. McClure, suggesting that Lieutenant-Commander Vogelsang, whom he designated as an expert in regard to torpedoes, and Lieutenant-Commander Hill, an expert in the distribution of armor plate, be called as witnesses. Col. McClure stated that neither of these officers had in any manner contributed to the Rauterdahl article.

NEWS OF THE PACIFIC SLOPE

any planet between the sun and Mercury. For fifty years astronomers have been disturbed by the problem that Mercury does not follow the path, or orbit, which should be its natural course, and which mathematical astronomy has outlined for it. That there was some force pulling it from its orbit, and that this compelling force was the attraction of planets intervening between it and the sun was the general theory.

Prof. Campbell said last night: "These photographs plainly dispose of this theory, and mathematicians will have to look elsewhere for forces. While the plates have not received their final development, they make the absence of planets certain."

Mexican Near Fresno Loses Six Members of His Family Inside of a Year.
[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—A.M.]
FRESNO, Feb. 26.—Within six months (time Antonio Monges, a Mexican, has been bereaved of his wife and five children.

Two children remain in the family and they are sick with a disease that will probably terminate fatally. Last fall Mrs. Monges, who lived at King's River, near the Sierras, east of this city, died. Two grown sons by a former husband have died since that time. Last Saturday another son died of diphtheria. The disease spread among other members of the family, and yesterday a daughter died. Today the baby of the family breathed its last. The remaining members of the family are very ill with diphtheria, and not expected to live.

The family is poverty stricken and has appealed to the county for aid.

WILL PROBABLY PERISH.
Storm Causes Delay in Relief Expedition, and Marooned Japanese Expected to Die Before Reached.
[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—A.M.]
SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 26.—The many Japanese fishermen and sailors stranded on the Malaspina Glacier near Yakutat, Alaska, from the wrecked schooner Satsuma Maru, and for whose rescue the United States dispatched the revenue cutter Thetis from Alaska and McCulloch from San Francisco, in all probability will perish before the relief expedition reaches Yakutat, according to advices received here today.

A terrible storm with a gale blowing from the north, and reports of the northern coast, and the McCulloch and Thetis have had to temporarily give up the voyage to Alaska and put into Neah Bay for shelter. This report came to the Merchant Exchange in this city, and judging from the severity of the storm, it would have been useless for either of the revenue cutters to have attempted to keep on to its destination.

Attorney for California Development Company Wants Judge Wellborn to Enter Amended Decree.
[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—P.M.]
SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 26.—Attorney McCutcheon, representing the California Development Company, which made the Imperial Valley possible, appeared before Judge Gilbert, Ross and Morrow, sitting as a United States Circuit Court of Appeals, yesterday and argued for a writ of mandamus to direct District Judge Wellborn of Los Angeles to amend a recent opinion.

The opinion was in the form of an injunction in the suit of the Liverpool & London Steamship Company against the California Development Company, and it contained two clerical errors in the description of the land, which leaves it without effect. When this difficulty was called to Judge Wellborn's attention, he ordered the clerk of the court to make the necessary correction in the records, but later, realizing that an appeal had been taken on the original decision, he recalled his instruction for correction to the clerk.

The writ of mandamus directed is to cause Judge Wellborn to have his amended decree entered. The matter was taken under advisement.

It is understood the Southern Pacific will build the line, and the company is the only one in a position to build such a road. It probably will obtain the contract.

Passengers report she sprang a leak, but the officers said to be reticent about the cause for turning back. The passengers will go out on the steamer North-western Sunday, which will make about 600 passengers for her.

FIND STOWAWAY JAP.
NEARLY DEAD FROM THIRST.
[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—P.M.]
VANCOUVER, Feb. 26.—Fearfully emaciated and babbling deliriously, a Japanese was found in a corner of a freight shed of the Canadian-Pacific Railroad today. He is supposed to have been a stowaway on a steamer from the Orient, and from what could be gathered from his rambling and incoherent statement, he had hid in the dark corner waiting for a chance to get away. To keep alive he broke open and consumed two cases of oranges, and a case of canned goods. Want of water, however, afflicted him and his groans led some longshoremen to investigate. He will be deported.

Uruguayan Barkentine Andromeda Arrives at San Francisco, 120 Days Out from Newcastle.
[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—P.M.]
SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 26.—Studios politeness between the officers of the Uruguayan barkentine Andromeda was apparently conspicuous during the protracted voyage of that vessel to this port from Australia.

The Andromeda reached this port yesterday, and Capt. Turloff reported having had to depose the first officer from his position. Those on the battered barkentine said that the vessel's floor was deposited because he insisted in keeping the captain awake by trudging over the poop deck late at night in heavy boots.

The Andromeda occupied 120 days on the voyage from Newcastle, and for fifty-four days encountered very heavy weather, during which her decks were continually filled to the rails and a number of sails were lost.

DENY DRUNKENNESS.
The American Shipmasters' Association of the Pacific Coast resent the statement attributed to members of the Redondo Chamber of Commerce that the majority of vessels wrecked at that port were in charge of drunken masters. Capt. Alexander Bergman, secretary of the association, has drafted a letter in refutation of the statement, which is characterized as an attempt to whitewash the port of Redondo at the expense of captains of steamers who have lost their lives in the harbor the stress of which is questioned.

SHIPPING NEWS.
Several vessels have changed hands during the last few days. The brig Henry G. has been sold to J. A. Mathison of Anacortes. The bark W. B. Flint has been purchased by F. W. Van Sicken. The steamer Sunol has been sold by Piper, Alden, Goodall & Co. to W. P. Fuller.

The steamer Vanguard, Capt. A. Priddy, is scheduled to leave the Clinton Basin wharf on Saturday afternoon for Vladivostok and North China. The Vanguard, in addition to a large amount of flour and lumber from Puget Sound, is taking 100 tons of canned fruits from this port.

At 25 shillings, Balfour, Guthrie & Co. have rechartered the British ship Arctic Stream, now at Portland, to carry wheat thence to the United Kingdom, Havre, Antwerp or Dunkirk. The Compagnie du Boile has chartered the American schooner William Renison, 276 tons, now at San Pedro, to convey lumber from Gray's Harbor to Santa Rosalia.

The steamer Oregon, with 400,000 feet of lumber, and the steamer National City, from Port Bragg, with 250,000 feet, were the only lumber vessels arriving at this port today.

SLOPE BRIEFS.
Girl's Arm Is Found.
ELY (Nev.), Feb. 26.—A human arm, which physicians claim came from the body of a young woman between 18 and 20 years of age, was found last evening by City Marshal "Hodge" while he was gathering chips from his wood pile.

The arm was almost devoid of flesh, the fingers being but dead skin and bone. The arm was found in the wood pile of the evening before, and Hodge said his dog probably found the bone and brought it home.

"So far as can be learned, there was no disappearance last night of any young woman of the age indicated by the remains of the arm."

DEFENDS PARTY AND POLICIES.

Dalzell Delivers Exhaustive Speech in House.

Upholds the Principles of Republicanism.

Thinks Tariff Revision Is Unnecessary.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—P.M.)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 24.—The climax of the general debate on the army appropriation bill in the House came today when Mr. Dalzell of Pennsylvania, recognized as one of the foremost protectionists of the country, delivered an exhaustive speech in defense of the Republican party and its policies, in which he upheld the principle of the protective tariff system, and said that under it, the United States had become the greatest of manufacturing nations.

He did not believe there was any necessity for tariff revision but thought it was well to recognize the claims of those who think there should be some alterations. Whatever that revision was, provided the Republicans were successful at the next election, he assured his hearers, would be in accordance with the Republican theory of protection to American industries and the wages of American workingmen.

The American tariff system was attacked by Mr. Houston of Tennessee, who charged that the trusts owed their being to it, and urged its revision.

Other addresses were made by Mr. Sherwood of Ohio, in support of his bill to pension soldiers of the Civil War at $1 a day, and by Mr. Boutwell of Illinois, who referred to the fact that the gold in the United States for the first time had reached one thousand million dollars. The tariff revision bill was read for amendment, and its consideration was not concluded when the House adjourned.

POLITICS SUSPECTED.

Nomination of Missouri is Discussed in Senate, but Confirmation is Unanimous.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—P.M.)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 24.—The Senate today confirmed the nomination of Louis A. Coolidge of Massachusetts to be Assistant Secretary of the Treasury, and Charles Grandfield of Missouri to be First Assistant Postmaster-General.

Several Democratic Senators expressed the opinion that Mr. Grandfield's appointment to so responsible a position should not have been made. It was pointed out that he was connected with the Postoffice Department during the scandalous holding of a position of trust, and it was said that he should have been censured or the wrongdoing on the part of his superiors. It was shown, however, that Mr. Grandfield received the promotion to First Assistant Postmaster-General because of his long service in the department, and that he had earned a suitable reputation.

It was also indicated that the appointment was in the interest of the nomination of Secretary Taft for President. Mr. Coolidge, who was the chief clerk under former First Assistant Postmaster-General Hitchcock, who is now a Taft man.

This suggestion elicited no response, however, and Mr. Grandfield was confirmed without a roll call.

EMPLOYERS' LIABILITY BILL.

COMMITTEE GIVES HEARING.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—A.M.)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 24.—Arguments for and against an employers' liability bill were heard today by the House Committee on Judiciary. Second Vice-President and General Counsel Board of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad detailed the workings of the relief department of the different railway systems, which, he said, represent an attempt to establish a compensation system. He said all his company asked the committee was that they frame legislation as soon as to destroy this system.

KNOCK ALDRICH BILL.

TWO SENATORS SPEAK.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—A.M.)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 24.—In a speech on the Aldrich currency bill in the Senate today, Senator Culberson stated that he had no intention to make an effort to have the bill amended as to require national banks to keep their reserves in their own vaults and to prohibit them from using government funds deposited with them in any way that might promote speculation in stocks and bonds.

Senator Nelson (Rep., Minn.) also denounced the measure as of no importance in its present form.

The currency bill was a motion of Mr. Aldrich, which the unfinished business of the Senate.

THINKS SYMPATHY IS WASTED ON CRIMINALS.

Charles S. Whitman.

New York Judge who has made a study of social conditions and who believes that the criminal thirty years old is ever reform. He believes in life imprisonment for confirmed criminals.

NEW YORK, Feb. 24.—Life imprisonment should be the fate of the mature criminal, in the opinion of Charles S. Whitman, recently judge of the Court of General Sessions, and generally regarded as the deepest student of criminology in this city. He is firmly of the opinion that the crime can be eliminated only by the elimination of the criminal.

The criminal thirty years old, in the opinion of Judge Whitman, is hopeless and his reformation is impossible. The criminal of that age should be put away for life. At least he should be regarded as habitually criminal and should be prevented from perpetuating his kind.

A prison chaplain of twenty years' experience in one of the penal institutions of this State admitted with regret that he had never known one case of true reformation.

Judge Whitman believes the woman of the street to be the greatest of unfortunates, but he also believes that sympathy is wasted upon them. It is his opinion, based on long observation, that the woman of the street never reforms and that she is the most dangerous of criminals. She is thoroughly criminal in all her instincts, she teaches crime and she supports at least one other criminal of her kind.

Greater safeguards should be given to those subjected to temptation and less sentimentality wasted upon the criminal. If the girl is paid a wage that will permit her to live a true life more good is accomplished than comes from the building of a house of refuge for the fallen.

WILL PLEAD GUILTY TO MURDER CHARGE.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—P.M.)

COLORADO SPRINGS (Colo.) Feb. 24.—Guiseppi Ahe, the murderer of Father Leo, declared today that he would plead guilty to the charge of murder.

"There is no chance for me," he said, "and I have no fear of death."

FATHER LEO'S BODY SENT TO PATERSON.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—P.M.)

DENVER (Colo.) Feb. 24.—With the solemnity and reverence due to his high position and position as a priest, the body of Rev. Father Leo Heinrichs was taken from St. Elizabeth's Cathedral today to the Union Station, where it was placed aboard the afternoon Burlington train to be forwarded to Burlington, N. J., where the Franciscan Fathers have their American headquarters.

The funeral procession was a notable one and was witnessed by thousands, who stood bunched as the hearse of the murdered priest was led by a squad of police, and a company of the Knights of St. John in full uniform and with drawn swords acted as a guard. The hearse was followed by a crowd of Catholics who followed on foot.

When the hearse was begun in the church at 6 o'clock this morning every available seat was filled, and a crowd of 500 people waited patiently outside the church for the funeral.

Inside the church were many of the prominent citizens of Denver, including Gov. Henry M. Buchtel and Mayor Robert S. Allen.

Solemn high mass was recited, and the service was impressive. Rev. Father William O'Ryan delivered the funeral oration, which was highly eulogized the martyred priest.

Rev. Father O'Ryan said, in part: "That any sermon attempted on this solemn occasion is not because of Father Leo, the simple Franciscan friar, who is dead, nor even because of the high office which he held, but because of the society in which he lived and his outraged law."

"Crimes such as that of last Sunday are assaults on no mere individual; they are against you and me, and against the whole of humanity. They are assaults on the very life of the civilized state."

"Father Leo was struck down, the murderer confessed, because he was a priest, and not for any fancied grievance or imagined injury that the murdered priest had received from him. He never spoke with him; their lives except in that one dread moment of blood and sacrifice had never touched. Nor did he kill him, as priests have been killed, in hatred of his special creed. But he knew that the priest was an outward symbol and present ambassador of that only authority which kings reign and magistrates execute justice and human law rears itself in awful dignity and finds its sanction in the authority and word of God. And because the murderer had revolted against God's authority, his rebellion went to its uttermost against the priest, who was the symbol of God's presence in the world of human law, and broke it until it gushed human blood; he reviled his sacred office and symbol, the priest, and slew him."

"The murder was logical. The anarchist is never true to his diabolical principles than when he slays a Catholic priest, and slays him at the altar of God. It matters not that the individual priest possesses little of the world's power or goods, nor desires them for himself; it matters not even that he is a poor man, and that he is an officer in that great army whose tramp is around the world, whose discipline is most perfect; whose organization is most minutely refined; whose banners are forever set against the enemy of

WATERWAYS ARE FAVORED.

In Message to Congress, President Urges Action.

Declares That Various Rivers Should Be Improved.

Discloses Facts Gleaned by Commission.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—A.M.)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 24.—The President today sent to Congress the following message on the subject of inland waterways:

"To the Senate and House of Representatives: I transmit herewith a preliminary report from the Inland Waterways Commission, which was appointed by me last March to study and report on the condition of the inland waterways of the United States. The basis of this demand in the general and admitted inability of the railroads to handle promptly the traffic of the country, and especially the crops of the previous year.

"This report is well worth your attention. It is thorough, conservative, and just. It represents the mature judgment of a body of men experienced in the study of the problem throughout the United States, to understand and discuss the great problem of how best to use our waterways in the interest of all the people. Unusual care has been taken to secure accurate and balanced statements.

"Possibly OVERCONSERVATIVE. If the report errs at all it is by over-conservatism. It contains findings and recommendations of fact, a number of specific recommendations, and an account of the progress of the commission's work in the past year. It contains information contained in a voluminous appendix. The subject with which it deals is of the greatest importance to the present and the future of our country."

"Our river systems are better adapted to the needs of the people than those of any other country. In extent, distribution, navigability and ease of use, they stand first. Yet the rivers of our country are so poorly developed, so little used, or play so small a part in the industrial life of the nation that the United States is in view of the use made of rivers elsewhere, the failure to use our own waterways is a national disgrace. The accompanying report indicates clearly the reasons for it and the way to end it.

"The commission finds that it was unregulated railroad competition which prevented or destroyed the development of commerce on our inland waterways. The result has been that the natural highway, in case in point, at one time the traffic upon it was without a rival in any country. The report shows that the waterways of the Mississippi by the railroads. While production was limited, the railroads, with their convenient terminals, gave the waterways a serious handicap. Later they prevented the restoration of river traffic by the building of locks and dams, and by the construction of levees and other works, recouping themselves by higher charges elsewhere. They also acquired water fronts and terminals to an extent which made water competition impossible.

"In HANDS OF RAILROADS. Throughout the country the railroads have secured such control of canals and steamboat lines that to-day the waterways are in the hands of the railroads. This was natural, and doubtless inevitable under the circumstances, but it should not be allowed to continue. It is in our hands, and it is our duty to exercise careful government regulation.

"Comparatively little inland freight is carried by boat which is not carried by railroads. The reason is that the waterways are not developed and used to their full capacity. The report shows the successful development and use of our interstate waterways will require intelligent regulation of the waterways, and water traffic. When this is done the railroads and waterways will be able to compete on a level playing field. Both will benefit, and the people will be able to transport goods more cheaply and more quickly.

"The report also shows that the waterways are in a position to develop a river for navigation in such a way as to prevent its use for power, when by a little forethought and planning it can be made to serve both purposes. We cannot afford needlessly to sacrifice power to navigation, or navigation to power. The use of a stream for both purposes is the only way to develop a river for navigation in such a way as to prevent its use for power, when by a little forethought and planning it can be made to serve both purposes. HIS HEART FAILED HIM.
Cripple About to Undergo Operation Dies at the Emergency and General Hospital.

Just as he was about to undergo an operation at the Emergency and General Hospital yesterday afternoon for the removal of gall stones Joseph Faust, a newspaper vendor of No. 345 Wilton street, was seized with heart failure and died almost instantly.

The attack came on just before the anesthetic was to be administered and proved fatal before the attending physicians could take any steps to save the man.

Faust was 50 years old and a cripple. Five years ago he sustained a serious injury to his legs and both were amputated above the knees owing to gangrene. Rupture of the heart is supposed to have caused his death, as, at the autopsy, the heart sack was found to be full of blood.

ADMINISTRATOR NAMED.

SEES DANGER AHEAD.
Austria Thinks the Appointment of a Governor for Macedonia Would Cause War.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—P.M.)
VIENNA, Feb. 26.—The Austrian Foreign Office highly praises the friendly attitude of Great Britain as revealed in the speeches yesterday by Sir Edward Grey, Foreign Secretary in the House of Commons, and Lord Fitzmaurice, under foreign secretary, in the House of Lords, but points out that, should the suggestion be made seriously of appointing a permanent Governor of Macedonia by the signatory powers, it would expose the European concert to the severest strain, because it is believed that Turkey would rather risk a war than thus virtually yield the sovereignty of Macedonia.

The New Free Press reminds its readers that Baron von Aehrenthal, the Austrian Foreign Minister, recently denounced as a dangerous step the idea of appointing an international Governor. The paper sees danger in Great Britain's attitude in encouraging the Balkan States to take up the cause of their national interests.

MINES AND MINING.

BIG MERGER NOW PLANNED.

Memor Joins Tonopah Mining and Tecopa Mines.

Plans Said to Include Smelter at Beatty.

Details Being Worked Out in Philadelphia.

Angelo people, shows some very good values in gold, assays having run as high as $2000 at 150 feet of depth. Richardson, brothers, merchants of Victorville, and their partner, James O'Hara, are sinking shafts on two of their claims, while Parsons, an engineer, claims that the Richardson brothers are doing more or less work upon claims which give good promise.

Hazon, brothers recently bonded seven claims adjoining the Macdonald mine at a price said to be in the neighborhood of $25,000. They also own a group of six miles to the east, and are getting high values at the 100-foot level. There are also many other good looking claims within twenty-five miles of the railroad, and good wagon roads and easy access.

The climate is good, the camp lying at an elevation of 4000 feet above sea level. There is a good spring at the camp, while indications in the vicinity show that water can be developed without very deep work almost anywhere in the vicinity.

Owner of Big Mine.

Dan Cordner, one of the owners of the famous Hercules mine in the Coeur d'Alene district, in Idaho, is a guest at the Alexandria Hotel, registering from his home at Burke, where this mine is situated. The Hercules mine is one of the greatest silver-lead properties ever discovered, and is believed to second only in producing capacity to the famous Hiss and Sullivan mine in the same district. It is owned by Harry Day, Jerome E. Day, and John H. Day, who are labor leaders who married a sister of the Day brothers, and who has forgotten his championship of the workmen since the mine brought him riches. August Paulsen, who is now building a sixteen-story skyscraper in Spokane with Hercules money, and E. A. Hutton, whose wife took a prominent part in the Coeur d'Alene riots when she aided the strikers' cause with the products of her pen, for years the partners in the Hercules property in the face of the ridicule of the mining fraternity of the district and at many times in its early history it was thought that the last tap of work had been done, owing to the inability of the owners to obtain more credit for supplies. The Day brothers owned the milk-supply business of Wallace, and the money derived from that source went a long way toward the development of the mine. After years of heart-breaking disappointments were at last struck, and in a few brief months the owners were millionaires. Before the fall in the price of silver and lead last September the property was paying $90,000 in dividends every month, and had done so for several years. The output has now been somewhat reduced, but the price of silver is improving, and the mine is still paying enough to place the owners beyond the dreams of avarice. The property is managed by Harry Day, recognized as one of the shrewdest men in the State, and who is believed to be looking for the Democratic nomination to the United States Senate.

Movements of Mining Men.

George S. Wilson has returned from a short trip to Searchlight, where he has been to make arrangements for the purchase of property which he owns in the district.

Dan P. Bagnell, one of the most prominent mining brokers on the Spokane stock exchange, is a visitor in the city, and will remain in the south for several weeks. He is heavily interested in the Snowtown and Tamarac and Chesapeake mines in the Coeur d'Alene district, and has accumulated a large fortune since the rise in securities which started nearly two years ago.

Fred H. Mason, president and manager of the Holley, Mason, Marks Co., one of the largest hardware dealers in the northwest, with headquarters at Spokane, is a guest in the city accompanied by his wife and daughter. He was at one time interested in the Lact Chance mine near Warfield, Idaho, which subsequently passed to the Empire State Mining Company, and is now the property of the Federal Mining & Smelting Company of New York, the largest single producer of silver-lead ore in the world.

INVITATION EXTENDED.

Vestry of St. Paul's Pro-Cathedral Asks Popular Pasadena Rector to Take Charge Here.

The vestry of St. Paul's Pro-Cathedral met yesterday and decided to invite Rev. William McCormack to become rector of St. Paul's parish and dean of the Pro-Cathedral. Dr. McCormack has been rector of All Saint's church in Pasadena for several years.

A New Candidate.

Camp Rich, in the Ord district, thirty miles east of Victorville, San Bernardino county, and fifteen miles south of Daguerre, on the Santa Fe and Salt Lake railroads, is the latest candidate for the attention of mining men and investors. The camp is situated on a hillside, and the development of the mine is being prosecuted in a manner which augurs well for the ultimate results.

The foothills for fifty miles around the Ord Mountains are heavily mineralized and show good veins in copper, lead, zinc, and silver. The lodes run north-south and are situated in the Ord Mountains. The first locations were made by the Ord Mountains Copper & Silver Co., and the second by the Ord Mountains Copper & Silver Co. The Ord Mountains Copper & Silver Co. is now being developed by the Ord Mountains Copper & Silver Co. The Ord Mountains Copper & Silver Co. is now being developed by the Ord Mountains Copper & Silver Co.

who has been invited to become rector of St. Paul's parish.

Church, Pasadena, for the past ten years, and is an active and popular preacher. He has built up a great number of converts, and is regarded as one of the strongest men in the diocese, with a great future in store. He has not as yet made any decision as to whether or not he will accept the position, but it is believed that he will accept the position, and that he will accept the position, and that he will accept the position.

DEATH OF CAPT. GOLDEN.

Well-Known Western Railroad Man, Member of Loyal Legion, Expires in This City.

Capt. Henry C. Golden, until three years ago general western agent at Kansas City of the Star Union fast freight lines of the Pennsylvania Railroad, died yesterday at the home of E. S. Palmer, his brother-in-law, No. 1031 Bonnie Brae street. He had been an invalid for three years. Death was due to brain paralysis.

Capt. Golden died as he slept, and so peaceful was his passing that his wife, who had watched over him carefully during his sickness, was not awakened. He was 64 years old, and leaves a widow who has been his devoted companion.

He was born in Chatham, N. Y., and the beginning of the Civil War enlisted in the One Hundred and Eleventh New York Volunteers, and won a commission. He served under Miles, and was a member of the Military Order of the Loyal Legion.

Soon after the war closed he removed to Kansas City and engaged in railroad work. He was particularly well known in western railroad circles, having for number of years held the responsible position he filled before coming to California.

Close attention to his work caused a general breakdown in health, and in the spring of 1905 he removed to Los Angeles.

Funeral services will be held at St. Vibiana's Cathedral tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock. The interment will be at Calvary cemetery.

PRESCRIPTION IS FILLED OFTEN.

"TIMES" READERS TAKE ADVANTAGE OF ADVICE SAYS DRUGGIST HERE.

Local druggist kept busy all week—No sufferer of kidney or bladder trouble or Rheumatism should leave it untried as hundreds of people here are now well.

That the readers of this paper appreciate advice when given in good faith is plainly demonstrated by the fact that one well-known local pharmacist supplied the ingredients for the "vegetable prescription" many times within the past two weeks. The announcement of this simple, harmless mixture has certainly accomplished much in reducing the great many cases of kidney complaint and rheumatism here, relieving pain and misery, especially among the older population, who are always suffering more or less with bladder and urinary troubles, backache and particularly rheumatism.

Another well-known druggist asks us to continue the announcement of the prescription. It is doing so much good here, he continues, that it would be a crime not to do so. It can be repeated too often, and further states many cases of remarkable cures wrought.

The following is the prescription, of simple ingredients, making a harmless, inexpensive compound, which any person can prepare by shaking well in a bottle: Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Karyo, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. Any first-class drug store will sell this small amount of each ingredient, and the dose for adults is one teaspoonful to be taken after each meal and again at bedtime. There is enough here to last for one week, if taken according to directions. Good results will be apparent from the first few doses.

Chamber of Commerce Directors Unanimously Re-elect Him Secretary. New Excursion Committee.

At the meeting of the directors of the Chamber of Commerce yesterday, George H. Wiggins had his first experience as president officer. By unanimous vote, Frank Wiggins was re-elected as secretary and H. B. Gurley as his assistant. President Stewart appointed a new Excursion Committee consisting of Walter Raymond, chairman; G. G. Johnson, Percy H. Clark, C. N. Campbell, D. E. Luther and D. C. McGavin. This committee will have charge of a "red-hand" excursion over the kite-shaped track, which is scheduled for March 21.

A. H. Nattager appeared before the board to advocate action on the proposition to enlist the support of all commercial organizations in the matter of securing special "home settlers" rates on all railroads terminating on the Coast. He stated that rates were given on the railroads to Mexico, Texas and other points, and said that with concerted action on the part of the commercial bodies, rates could be secured for this section.

It was reported that the railroads had agreed to give a low round-trip rate as far east as El Paso and Caliente for visitors to this city during the reception to Admiral Evans and the fleet.

The chamber's Fleet Committee stated that it considered the Chamber of Commerce Hall too small for the reception to be given the officers of the battleship fleet and that it will secure a larger hall.

The Committee on Fortifications recommended that eight battleships be permanently stationed on the Pacific Coast.

F. W. Kellogg, Don W. Carlton, J. W. Bowen and the National Towing Supply Company were elected to membership.

Well-Known Western Railroad Man, Member of Loyal Legion, Expires in This City.

Capt. Henry C. Golden, until three years ago general western agent at Kansas City of the Star Union fast freight lines of the Pennsylvania Railroad, died yesterday at the home of E. S. Palmer, his brother-in-law, No. 1031 Bonnie Brae street. He had been an invalid for three years. Death was due to brain paralysis.

Capt. Golden died as he slept, and so peaceful was his passing that his wife, who had watched over him carefully during his sickness, was not awakened. He was 64 years old, and leaves a widow who has been his devoted companion.

He was born in Chatham, N. Y., and the beginning of the Civil War enlisted in the One Hundred and Eleventh New York Volunteers, and won a commission. He served under Miles, and was a member of the Military Order of the Loyal Legion.

Soon after the war closed he removed to Kansas City and engaged in railroad work. He was particularly well known in western railroad circles, having for number of years held the responsible position he filled before coming to California.

Close attention to his work caused a general breakdown in health, and in the spring of 1905 he removed to Los Angeles.

Funeral services will be held at St. Vibiana's Cathedral tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock. The interment will be at Calvary cemetery.

MUSIC AND THE STAGE.

Dick Ferris has raised the fiercest question of stage ethics in contemporary dramatic history. At the "Cassidy" matinee he appeared before the curtain and roared his own company, seated in the "behind" as though he had the post, while "in front" he is looked upon as a great curiosity—nay, almost as a freak.

The late Mr. Mansfield dared to roast an audience or two, which was pardonable, but Dick has set a precedent by trying his own actors to the stake. It all came about through one of Richard's well-known curtain speeches, which he is always careful to appropriate to large audiences only.

"Ladies and gentlemen," he began in his most professional tone—here every one waited for platitudes. "I am concluding my season in great part because I am dissatisfied with my company. (Hemstition.) My actors are not what I represented them to be. Some of them are not actors. Some of them are nearly actors. Few have proven what I believed them when I hired them. I have always endeavored to play fair with you (Dick remains the champion confectioner), and when I am the work these people do, I feel as if I were taking your money wrong."

No one appreciates your kind words more than I, and, again, I apologize and thank you for your consideration. I have large demonstrations in front, and constant murmuring of stage hands behind the curtain.

The Ferris engagement is concluding a series of volleys. A certain society has been canonized to the last degree and builders are wondering if the time will be an explosion. "I will say the actors 'hand it back,' with respect."

Barker Berry left for San Francisco last night's Owl, and it is expected that his return will mark the settlement of some matters, at least, pertaining to the spring attractions at the Auditorium.

Padewski, who will be here in a few days, has spent the greater part of February on the Pacific Coast, and after leaving Los Angeles will come to work his way back East over the southern route, having come down by the northern thoroughfare. His health has been very good, and his sixteen February concerts have not apparently tired him. His season will end April 28, with a concert at Allen-son, Pa.

Mme. Teresa Carreno returned yesterday from San Diego, where she gave a successful concert under the auspices of the Amphion Club. Last evening she was guest of honor at a dinner given her at the Hotel Hollywood by the Dominant Club.

She will spend the remainder of the week here, playing her final concert tomorrow night, and early next week will leave for a series of recitals through Texas and adjacent States.

Certain plans are already under way for the English opera to be given at the Metropolitan Opera-house next season. The new management, Messrs. Dippel and Gatti-Casazza, are now of presenting in our language Weber's "Oberon" and Smetana's Russian opera, "The Bartered Bride." Singers already enrolled for English operas are Fremstad, Homer and Farrar, the Americans; Robert Hays, the Wagnerian tenor—who is also an American, though few people are aware of that fact—and Charles Dalmores, leading French tenor, who happens to be an accomplished Englishman.

Eleanora Duse will make her future headquarters at the Lagoon Palace in Florence, which she has just purchased. She was already the owner of a palace on the Grand Canal of Venice, but the damp climate was unsuited to her.

For a long time her favorite residence in Italy was her villa at Settignano, near Florence. It is surrounded with olive gardens, and the actress possessed a romantic attachment for it. But it also added the villa of Gabriele D'Annunzio, and since the rupture of her friendship with the poet the place has become unbearable to her.

Of late she has stopped a good deal at the Grand Hotel, Florence. But the curiosity of tourists has made this more or less disagreeable.

The Palazzo Lapponi was built in 1330. It is a beautiful building, only in need of furnishing and proper keeping to make it a princely dwelling. Her price was about $120,000.

LETTERS TO THE TIMES.

(The Times freely publishes the views of correspondents without holding them responsible for opinions expressed. It is not a place for the expression of ill-will, or for the publication of letters which are likely to be declined merely on account of their length.)

Wants to Be God. LOS ANGELES, Feb. 25.—[To the Editor of The Times:] Being and continuing to be a permanent citizen of this beautiful and growing city, I take the liberty of making a few suggestions that might be of benefit to the city and people if placed before them and the city officials by the press.

(1) I suggest that public toilet rooms be placed at frequent intervals in the business part of the city, thereby preventing temperately inclined men from entering saloons, and often buying a drink as recompense for the privings.

(2) Reserve one corner of Central Park for women and children.

(3) Make it a misdemeanor to cut carpets or rugs or sweep walks in the business district after 7 a.m., as germs are carried in the nostrils of the passerby to a greater volume than the women's dresses could from the walk.

(4) Place metal waste boxes in each block on business streets, so that pedestrians can place old papers, etc., in them, "as in Chicago, New York, etc.," instead of throwing paper on the street or walks.

(5) Object to the Japs participating in celebrating the arrival of fleet, as they are so self-sacrificing that appointed individuals among the counties be chosen to carry sufficient nitroglycerin on their persons, and at a given moment disable, if not destroy, the fleet.

FRIENDS OF LEWIS RALLY TO HIS AID.

"Brother Dave" Lewis, whose friends are sudden victims of an epidemic of falling memory regarding his alleged connection with Ocean Park election frauds.

"BROTHER DAVE" LEWIS, who has been experiencing the troubles of a practical politician, yesterday reaped some of the rewards.

His friends went cheerfully to his rescue and did their best to keep him from going to jail. He is on trial for alleged crooked work in connection with the election frauds at Venice and Ocean Park.

Such a unanimous epidemic of falling memory never was seen as in the case of the witnesses for the prosecution.

Lewis is accused of having registered falsely to vote for the Venice disincorporation election and then of having been scared out at the last minute.

Yesterday, when the District Attorney attempted to duplicate the testimony upon which Lewis was indicted, there was a strange loss of memory.

Neighbors, by whom it was sought to prove that Lewis was actually in the city all the time he was swearing to a residence at Venice, couldn't remember having seen him.

All the colonized voters theoretically lived at the Hotel Decatur. The prosecution asserts they did not actually live there, but merely registered as living there.

In attempting to verify this fact, the chief clerk was called. They too, were utterly unable to remember whether or not Brother Dave lived there at the time of his registration.

One colored man was ordered to sit on the witness stand as witness against Brother Dave, who often had slid a dime across the counter to him in the old days. The old negro simply fled at the news he was wanted and hasn't been found.

Although his political eminence got him into trouble, Brother Dave's political eminence seems likely to get him out again.

KNIGHT OF HIS WARD.

"Brother Dave" is the sometime boss of the Seventh Ward and a great character. In the bloody Ate, politics is the national game and more or less a form of relaxation; but in the seventh it's war.

For a long time Brother Dave was the plumed knight of it. He is a bullet-headed Welshman who could probably draw a check for $50,000 and have it cashed. He talks with a brogue that sounds like apple butter.

In the days of his pious youth he used to be a coal miner down in the bowels of the mountains somewhere in South Wales, and lived in a town that, if printed, would look like a general stampede of all the "i"s and "w"s in the alphabet.

One day a blasting fuse went off too soon and planted little dots of coal in Brother Dave's cheek and soured him on the fuel situation.

He made a rush for America; he found that Tom Savage was here before him, but felt better when he learned that Joe Margolis had not yet arrived.

Brother Dave did not at once take the political helm and tell the Seventh Ward how to vote. He got a job in a Santa Ana coal mine, worked on a farm, and finally ended his explorations at San Pedro, heaving planks in a lumber yard.

Finally he married the daughter of one of the early-day saloon-keepers in Los Angeles, and was ready for life.

HIS FIRST RENOWN.

worked with at the lumber yard died and left him a fortune. The courts eventually took it away from him, but anyhow, he held long enough to get out of the little tough saloon on Third street. He moved into a gin palace and had hired barkeepers.

His old associates were horror-struck when Dave insisted upon moving out of his little corner vote producer. If Joe Margolis should move on Adams street in the "silk stocking" con- sideration could not be more profound. They have never loved Dave the same since. It was the beginning of his rise—and his troubles.

Fate located a political club over his saloon, and he became the center of a politician's hang-out. He also became related by marriage to the Vignes family, one of whose members was arrested on a charge of attempting to bribe voters.

About this time Dave got up a reputation as a political wisecracker. He used to bet on the elections, and it seemed as if he couldn't lose. The politicians always claim that Dave always shuts his eyes and put his pudgy finger on the list and bets on the one nearest the finger. But he always wins.

WANTS HER RING.

Woman Says Man Holds It Wrongfully: He Insists He Made Loan on It.

F. H. Perkins was arrested last night on a grand larceny charge preferred by Maud Yeakel, who lives at Hotel Rose, No. 308 South Broadway. He is alleged to have taken a valuable diamond ring from the woman's finger and failed to give it back.

Perkins is employed by Lawrence and Comstock, managers of the "Lucky" Baldwin hotels, as superintendent at Arcadia. The woman charged that he took the ring, ostensibly to look at it, then kept it. She requested him to return it, and when he failed to do so, the larceny charge followed. Perkins says he loaned the woman money, and took the ring as security.

WILL REMAIN UNSOLVED.

Efforts to Probe Into Killing of King Carlos and Prince Luis Likely to Be Stopped.

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—P.M.

LISBON, Feb. 25.—The mystery behind the murder of King Carlos and Prince Luis is not likely ever to be completely lifted. The new Portuguese government professes that the crime should be regarded both at home and abroad as the deed of individuals carried away by the political passions of the moment, and inasmuch as the Republicans are so anxious to clear their skirts of responsibility for the regime, both sides are glad to see an investigation which would probe the affair to the bottom smothered.

Yet there is undoubtedly much that could be cleared up. It is a matter of common knowledge that there were intrigues in high places as well as low before the tragedy occurred, and the rage of the leaders and lieutenants of the two "rotative" parties against Premier Franco and King Carlos were warring exceeded all bounds. There is no suggestion that there was a repetition of the Belgrade plot aimed at the King's person, but that some desperate political leaders were involved in the series of abortive plots against Franco's life which preceded the murder is believed in well-informed circles here. Franco himself told a friend the day before he left Lisbon, (virtually upon the order of the government) that it was impossible to reveal to the world what he had learned of the intrigues of the enemies of the crown and himself and therefore it was better for him to retire forever from the political arena.

The entire conspiracy fell through. It is related, because of the treason of a young lieutenant who, after the assassination of the King, confessed to his father, an officer, the role he was to play. Whether the plot aimed at the murder of the entire royal family is also likely to remain in dispute, as the official view attempts to make it appear that Prince Luis was killed by a mistake. This view, however, is not supported by the testimony of eye witnesses. One of these, the tutor of the Prince, was standing in the arcade at the corner of Black Horse Square as the royal carriage approached. He stood with his shoulder against the shoulder of Boissac, the man who fired the shot that killed the King. As the carriage reached a point almost directly opposite him, there was a report from the curb thirty or forty feet behind the carriage. The tutor saw the King straighten up, but he had no idea that a shot had been fired or that the King was hit. Thinking the report was the report of the machine gun, he turned to the man at his side and said: "Take out your gun. It is the King."

The words were not out of his mouth before the man darted forward, revolver in hand, and running up to within five feet of the rear of the carriage, fired a point blank. The King sank down, and his head fell forward. In the confusion which followed, the tutor saw the man who had fired first kneeling in the street with a carbine at his shoulder, firing shots in rapid succession. The Crown Prince was on his feet as the King received the fatal bullet, and the tutor is certain that it was he who killed the murderer of his father. Boissac was shot from the front through the heart. Whether it was the Crown Prince's bullet which killed him or not, it is certain that the Prince fired twice, for two chambers of his revolver were emptied. Everything goes to prove that the plot was to kill the entire royal family, thus obliterating the dynasty and precipitate a change in the regime.

Annual interest charge on the $5,000,000 First Mortgage Bonds which will be issued during 1938	250,000.00
Net Earnings More Than Eleven Times the Interest on These Bonds

For complete information we refer to the letter of Henry A. Blair, Chairman of the Board of Directors, dated February 1, 1937, which shows that the Chicago Railway Company operates without surface competition a street railway system of over three hundred miles, single track serving the north and west sides of the city of Chicago, embracing a territory with a population of 1,580,000.

These first mortgage bonds are issued to reimburse the company for its cash expenditures in reconstructing, re-equipping and extending its properties under the direct supervision of a Board of Supervising Engineers provided for under the terms of the new franchise of the company. Under the ordinance granting this franchise, which runs to February 1, 1937, the City of Chicago has placed a valuation upon the properties as of February 1, 1937, of approximately Thirty Million, Five Hundred Thousand Dollars ($30,500,000) which, under the ordinance, is to remain as a minimum continuing equity behind the First Mortgage Bonds.

According to the ordinance, there will be endorsed on each bond a certificate of the City Comptroller identifying the bond as being entitled to the first lien authorized upon the entire property under the ordinance. The City is an actual partner of the company, equally interested in increasing the earnings of the properties, thus the First Mortgage Bonds are offered as, in a sense, dual-municipal securities.

During the life of the First Mortgage Bonds a Finance Committee now consisting of Messrs. Chauncey Keop, Henry A. Blair and B. A. Eckhart will have direct supervision of the management of the company. Vacancies in the committee are to be filled only upon the written approval of the Board of Trustees and Savings Bank, Chicago Trustee for the First Mortgage Bonds.

We recommend these bonds for conservative investment because of the unusually large equity and surplus earnings, excellent franchise rights, and the strong and conservative management of the company's affairs guaranteed by the personnel of the Board of Trustees and the Finance Committee, all of whom are leading business men of Chicago.

THE MARKETS.
LOCAL PRODUCE MARKET.

There was a tendency toward dullness prevailing nearly all times of trade yesterday. The greatest demand for local produce was for apples, butter, eggs and cheese, and there were a few scattered orders for other items. This was mainly to heavy receipts.

On the produce exchange, 67 cases of fresh eggs were sold at 15 cents a dozen, outside receipts were a little more than 100 cases. The price was 15 cents a dozen, and there was a slight decline in the price of eggs. The long-expectation drop below the 20-cent mark has come, and with continued favorable weather, it is expected that the price will touch the 10-cent basis, there will be a halt in the decline, and the price will be about 10 cents a dozen. The demand for other items was not so heavy, and the prices were about 10 cents a dozen.
